Safecrackers Make Huge Haul In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Safecrackers took an estimated $170,000 from a giant supermarket here today after trying and gagging a nightwatchman, police said.

The loss estimate was made by John Schwegmann Jr., a partner in the Schwegmann Brothers Super market on the Airline Highway.

He said the thugs also took watches valued at about $5,000 from a concession in the store.

Police said that two or more men jumped the night watchman, a man who was sleeping in the store while a hard rain was falling. They tied up Centano, and then moved the eight foot high safe from the front of the store to the center, where they cut it open with an acetylene torch.

Schwegmann said that about half of the loot was in checks, and the other in cash.

Schwegmann said the robbers were unable to break into the inner part of the safe which was loaded with money.

Centano worked himself free and called police about 5:30 a.m.

The exercise is being held to honor students who have made outstanding scholastic records. Their son Jerry Porter King will be among the students honored at the exercise which will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Jerry graduated from Murray High School last year, and is taking a heavy schedule at the University. He is well remembered for his football activity at Murray High School.

President Donovan congratulated Mr. and Mrs. King on their son's participation in the exercise.

Fire Losses In County Were $72,574

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Fire losses in Calloway County totaled $74,574 last year as state-wide damage increased almost 20 per cent over 1952 to a total of nearly $16,500,000. The loss for Kentucky during the previous year was $13,812,434.

Announcement of the 1953 total was made by State Fire Marshal J. T. Underwood, Jr., who said a part of the higher loss may be attributed to higher prices but the real reason is that the fire prevention is the main reason for such heavy damage. There were 65 fires reported to the fire marshal in Calloway County during the year.

"While many home owners and business men literally spend millions to beautify their premises, many at the same time ignore unseen dangers such as over-loaded electrical circuits, faulty heating apparatus and accumulations of trash and rubbish," Underwood said.

Fifteen fires causing more than $100,000 damage accounted for a loss of $4,717,538, about 28 per cent of the total from all causes. Included were two schools valued at more than $200,000; industrial property valued at more than $1,500,000; two warehouses valued at $600,000, and a dozen commercial buildings. The two largest fires in 1953 involved the General Box Company, Louisville, and Paducah Dry Goods Company, Paducah, with both fires doing an estimated damage of more than $1,000,000.

Despite the large-loss fire toll, the heaviest dollar loss occurred in homes where the total amount of destruction was $634,991—a 16 per cent rise over 1952.

Inadequate electric wiring caused loss of more than $2,000,000 while stoves, furnaces and boilers accounted for more than $1,000,000.

"If a house is more than 10 years old, and the wiring has not been thoroughly inspected in the past five years, the owner is running a dangerous and unnecessary risk of losing it," continued the fire marshal. "Heating systems and their flues, likewise, should be given a complete check during the off-season and necessary repairs made immediately."

Hope To Prosecute Red, William Foster

WASHINGTON, May 3. — The Justice Department hopes to prosecute top American Communist William Z. Foster for allegedly conspiring to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the government. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. disclosed Sunday night.

Foster was national chairman of the Communist Party in 1948 when he and 11 other U.S. Red leaders were indicted under the Smith Act. Foster escaped trial because of a heart condition but the 11 others were sentenced to prison terms.

Brownell said the Justice Department has asked federal court in New York to appoint a doctor to examine Foster "to see which, if any, of his ailments he is too sick to stand trial is a valid one."

"If we are successful we will put on trial the actual head of the Communist Party in the United States," the attorney general said in a radio interview.

Five Children In Family Die In Fire

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 3. — Five children, members of one family, died today when flames swept their two story frame building in East End of Williamsport.

The dead were identified as Mary Ann, 10, Elizabeth, 9, Bernard Jr., 8, James, 7, and David, 6, all children of Bernard and Mrs. Mary Ann O'Brien.

The father and a sixth child, Patrick, 5, were burned as the father carried the boy to the street and then tried to rescue the other children, trapped in the second floor bedrooms.

Medical authorities were trying to determine whether the children burned to death or suffocated.

Fire Chief Harold E. Kinley said the origin of the fire was not determined.

It was believed it started at dawn in the living room of the first floor of the home. Kinley said the first floor was burned out and that the rooms of the upper floor were scorched.

Patrick was admitted to Divine Providence Hospital for treatment. The father was treated at Williamsport Hospital, as was the children's mother. He was treated for burns and she was treated for shock. Both were discharged.

Tattooed Robber On FBI Big Ten

WASHINGTON — A tattooed robber who "can shoot the buttons of your coat" and his accomplice wife today made the FBI's list of "10 most wanted fugitives."

Raymond Louis Owen Menard, 27, and his 25-year-old wife, Debra Rose, are wanted in St. Louis on charges of fleeing prosecution for burglary in February.

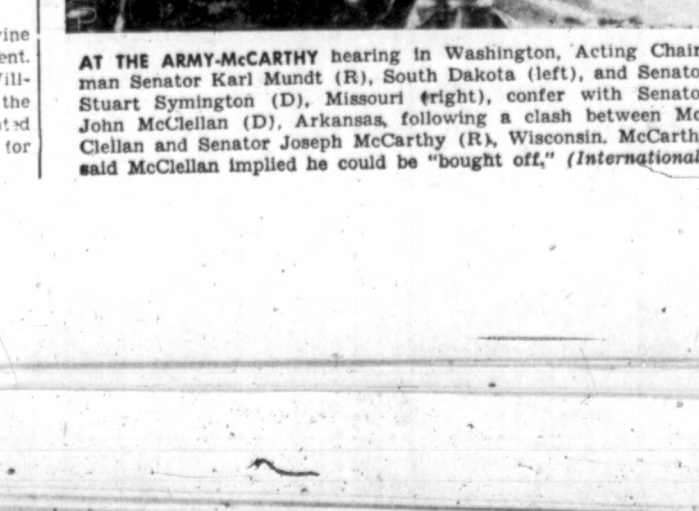

The young couple are the last fugitive members of a robber gang that has operated in the St. Louis area over the past year. The gang was known for using masks made of baby diapers.

Menard reportedly has boasted that he will never be taken alive as long as he has a gun in his hand.

His wife, a former nightclub entertainer is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 140 pounds and has gray eyes, brown hair and a ruddy complexion. He has numerous tattoos, including an American flag and "USA" on his left forearm, a dancing girl on his outer right forearm and a rose and banner labeled "Mother" on his outer left upper arm.

His wife, a former nightclub entertainer is 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighs 114 pounds and has blue eyes, black hair and a swarthy complexion. The couple is known to frequent bars and nightclubs featuring strip tease dancers, the FBI said.

Big Three Meets At Geneva To Begin Indochina Talks

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
GENEVA, Switzerland, May 3.

Big Three leaders at the Geneva conference met today with the Viet Nam foreign minister and ironed out difficulties delaying talks on Indochina.

U.S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith took over from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles as chief of the American delegation and attended the meeting at French headquarters.

Dulles, packing before taking off for Washington by way of Milan, did not go to the meeting which was attended by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and Viet Nam Foreign Minister Nguyen Quoc Dinh.

Informal sources predicted that as a result of the talks with Nguyen the Indochina peace talks would begin by Wednesday or Thursday.

Viet Nam agreed to sit down at the negotiating sessions with agents of the Communist-led Viet Minh but he drew the line at granting the rebel Indochinese equal status with the recognized government.

Originally, the Vietnamese had refused to negotiate with representatives of Ho Chi Minh, leader of the Reds who have been fighting the French Union forces in Indochina for seven years.

East-West negotiations on arrangements for the talks were virtually completed Sunday at a meeting between Jean Chauvel, French ambassador to Switzerland, and Andrei Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister.

Informants said Chauvel told Gromyko France was sending invitations to the three Associated States of Indochina — Viet Nam, Cambodia and Laos — and that all had given assurance they would accept.

The sources said Gromyko agreed the invitation to the Indochinese Communists would be signed only by Russia and not jointly with Communist China.

This was a basic point with the Allies because of their steadfast refusal to put the Peiping delegation on equal footing with the Big Four.

The Western Allies still were far from agreement on a united policy for the Indochina negotiations. The exhaustion of the French in Indochina is likely to be reinforced if the besieged Indochinese fortress of Dien Bien Phu falls to the Communists.

Reds Crowd Defenders Of Garrison

HANOI, Indochina, May 3. — Communist troops who have crowded the French defenders of Dien Bien Phu into a tiny half-mile-square area today broadcast demands that the besieged garrison "surrender or die."

The defiant French answered by announcing in advance that they will parachute reinforcements into the shrunken fortress tonight.

Foreign Legionnaires in sharp counter attacks drove the Communists from Dien Bien Phu's isolated outpost "Isabelle" earlier today, winning back one of four strong-points seized by the Reds in fierce weekend attacks.

But the Communists held three strong-points within the fortress' main defenses and had cut by one-fourth the area held by the French.

The Reds, within earshot of the defenders on all sides, set up loudspeakers to broadcast their surrender demands.

The defiant French answer was the first time since the siege began that the French High Command has announced in advance its intention to parachute in reinforcements.

The limited French success was scored by Legionnaires who attacked with bayonets and forced the Communists from the strong-point three miles south of Dien Bien Phu's main defenses.

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 3, (UP)—Starting two weeks from today you'll be able to see five fights a week on your television set, which may help explain why so many virtual strangers from foreign shores are boiling each other on video all at a sudden.

Last Friday, as an example, it was Pauli Rost of Italy against Orlando Zuheta of Cuba. This Friday night it will be Chico Yankee of Cuba against Eduardo Lausse pronounced "law-say" not "lousey" of Argentina.

Don't get the impression that the United States has run out of prize fighters.

It is simply, that while we have a good crop of main-eventers they are able to fight only so often.
Meanwhile, the cameras must be fed. This talent demand, and the payoff in depreciated but still acceptable Yankee dollars, accounts for the invasion.

In the old days the imports had to be of fair repute when they landed. Such was the case among foreign fighters of the ilk of Luis Angel Firpo, Georges Carpentier, Max Schmeling and Arturo Godoy, just to name a few who still are in memory.

But all of a sudden, we are up to our girdles in a flock of foreigners. These include Rost, Zulueta, middleweights Pierre Langlois and Jacques Royer, both of France.

More are on the way, too, headed by German heavyweight Heinz Neuhans.

Primarily they are given the big welcome as video fodder, although it is certain that their crowded madly will come a few challengers in the various divisions.

It's a cinch though that your reaction from time to time is going to be "who's better?"

Such a case in point is Friday night's presentation which brings together the unknown Lausse and Varona, who is equally unpublized in these parts.

They both are what is commonly referred to as the "club-fighter" type, which should make for good watching, albeit, rather listless rooting, barring the inspiration of a few bob one way or the other.

Lausse is a blockbuster who has won 15 in a row; they tell me, including 14 of those by knockouts.
His bestreferee, however, is a 1952 bout with Kid Gavilan in Argentina, where he suffered no worse than a reversal by decision.

Varona won the Cuban welterweight championship last year and

Best Beets as Big as Golf Balls

When Beets Are Young, Their Tops Are Tender, and Rich in Vitamins

Beets give a heavy yield for the space they take in the home garden, and can be harvested all summer long and served in many delicious ways.

The height of their quality is reached when they are as big as a golf ball; so several sowings at intervals are advisable to keep new crops coming to be harvested in their prime.

If you have trouble growing beets, it may be your soil needs lime. They are among the first vegetables to show leaf effects from acid soil. It causes stunted growth, small roots, and too much red and yellow coloring in their leaves.

If your beets showed these symptoms last summer, be sure to spread lime or limestone screenings over your garden this spring.
